For private tourist boats at the inner floating dock in Oddeyrarbót the monthly fee ISK 3.420 per metre of length, minimum fee is ISK 48.500

All ships shall pay tonnage dues.

Quay dues apply to the start of each 24-hour period. Daily tonnage and quay dues can be collected from ships and boats up to 100 GT. These constitute 7% of monthly dues.

It is permitted to charge up to five times the normal docking fees for those boats and ships that have been docked for a long time and have not had a certificate of seaworthiness for at least 6 months.

It is permitted to charge up to three times the normal docking fees for those boats and ships that request long-term docking due to industries unrelated to fishing.

Wharfage dues on goods ART 5.-9

Art. 5

All goods unloaded off a ship, or loaded onto a ship, or loaded and unloaded from ship to ship, within the harbor limits, are subject to wharfage dues, with the exemptions stated below. The carrier shall submit a manifest and other related documents to the Port of Akureyri, which will be used to determine the wharfage dues.

Art. 6

For goods which, according to the ship's manifest, are destined for foreign ports but are temporarily unloaded, wharfage dues shall only be charged when the goods are unloaded. Goods unloaded temporarily on account of damage to a ship are exempt from charges.

Art. 7

Wharfage dues are determined according to weight or value, including packing material and charged on each separate consignment. The ship's manifest shall be used when determining the wharfage dues. The captain or ship's agent shall submit a copy of the manifest to the Port of Akureyri.

Art. 8

If a manifest does not exist, the captain shall give a pledge to the Port of Akureyri confirming the type and quantity of goods unloaded or loaded on his ship. If the Port Director so decides, he/she may have the number of goods estimated as he/she deems fit. If the quantity proves to be greater than stated, the owner of the goods shall pay the extra cost.

Art. 9

If a consignment consists of more than one type of goods which are not itemized when submitted for the determination of wharfage dues, the type subject to the highest wharfage dues shall be used as a reference for charging.

Goods shall be classified in accordance with the wharfage due classification as follows:

Category 1	ISK 495 per ton	Petrol, fuel oils, coal, loose grain, salt, pumice, cement, asphalt, mineral products, fertilizer, hay and waste materials are transported for recycling purposes.
Category 2	ISK 622 per ton	Fish liver oil, fish meal, fish feed and fisheries products.

Category 3	ISK 910 per ton	Heavy articles such as pig iron and timber, steel, concrete reinforcement iron, house parts, building units, pipes, gypsum boards, electrical wires, metal cladding and insulation. Goods related to fishing operations, lubricating oils, agricultural products, and raw materials for industry and construction. Paper, packed and canned foods, beverages, and fruit. Rock wool, sheepskin, plastic fish containers, glass, and packaging.
Category 4	ISK 2.455 per ton	Other goods not specified in categories 1-3, such as machinery and spare parts. Textile products, clothing, rubber, home inventory, paper, furniture, cars, home appliances, office machines, motorcycles, bicycles, tires, boats, Aeroplan's, propellers, measurement devices, musical instruments, watches, clocks, cameras, binoculars, wine and tobacco, candy, cosmetics and medicine.
Category 5	Catch dues	a) 1.27% of the total value of catch offloaded onto land or a ship within the harbor area, destined for processing or transport, inc. fish and fry from fish farms. A charge of salted fish is applied to double its weight. b) 0.70% of the total value of freezer trawlers' frozen catch in accordance with provisions of Act No. 88/2010. The purchaser of the catch collects the dues from the vendor and is responsible for payment even if he/she has failed to collect from vendor. Catch dues are to be settled at least once every month. On the sale of catches to related parties as provided for in the third paragraph of Article 3 of Act No. 13/1998 on the Directorate of Fresh Fish Prices and the Seamen's and Vessel Owners' Appeals Committee, the minimum amount considered shall be the exchange prices issued by the Directorate of Fresh Fish Prices.
Category 6	Not collected	Wharfage fees for ferry services through the ports of Grimsey and Hrísey.
Category 7	Coastal	Only half of wharfage in each category is paid for products loaded and offloaded by regular coastal transport. Minimum dues in all categories are ISK 2,877 per ton.

Electricity and water Art. 10

Electricity

ISK 25,46	per kWh to ships, boats, contractors, and others
ISK 29,40	per kWh to freezing containers together with site lease
ISK 28,45	Electricity in Grímsey, Grenivík and Hrísey
ISK 5.765	Electricity connection charge
ISK 13.810	per hour for connections made outside normal working hours (a minimum call out is 4 hours)

Hot and cold water

ISK 436	per m ³ of cold water
ISK 483	per m ³ of hot water
ISK 6.400	Minimum charge
ISK 13.810	per hour for connections made outside normal working hours (a minimum call-out is 4 hours)

In accordance with regulation no. 125/2015 pertaining to Sulphur content in liquid marine gas, all ships that are docked and can receive electricity must receive electricity from land. Ships that can be serviced in such a way are not permitted to run their light generators unless their docking period is less than 6 hours.

Working hours of dockworkers outside normal working hours Art. 11

Dockworkers normally work between 08:00 and 16:00 every working day of the year. When their services are requested, they are charged by the hour, but a minimum of 4 hours is always charged. For general dock services, the fee per hour is ISK 9.625 during normal working hours and ISK 13.810 for overtime hours. If more than one customer is being serviced during those hours the cost is divided in accordance with the services provided.

For overtime services in Hrísey and Grímsey, overtimes are charged from 17:00.

Piloting dues Art. 12

In accordance with port regulations of the Port of Akureyri (Hafnasamlag Norðurlands bs.), all vessels exceeding 100 m in length, except for Icelandic fishing vessels, are required to use the services of a harbor pilot when maneuvering within ports which fall under the authority of the Port of Akureyri.

For piloting into the harbor, to a mooring point or anchorage, the charge is ISK 8.67 per gross ton. For piloting from a mooring point or anchorage and out of the harbor, identical charges apply. Pilotage within the harbor is charged at half the above fee. Minimum piloting dues, however, are ISK 98.050. In accordance with Port Regulation No. 287/2005 with subsequent amendments, the Port Director is authorized to issue an exemption to the captain of a vessel required to take a pilot on board according to the above provision.

Pilotage to other ports is according to agreements reached in each case.

If a ship departure or relocation is repeatedly delayed for more than 30 minutes from the scheduled time, without giving the notice to dock authorities at least 2 hours in advance, it is permitted to charge an extra, minimal harbor toll.

Tug services Art. 13

Vessels of more than 15,000 GT, oil tankers and ships with a hazardous cargo must be escorted by a tugboat for assistance or safety.

The hourly rate for tugboat Seifur and Sleipnir assistance is based on the gross tonnage of the vessel, being ISK 15.10 per gross ton.

The minimum charge per hour is ISK 104.287 for Seifur and ISK 75.292 for Sleipnir and Mjöllnir. The maximum charge is ISK 438.705 Minimum time paid for assistance is one hour.

If a tug accompanies a vessel for safety reasons into or out of the harbor, half the above dues are payable.

Transfer of pilot: Fixed rate of ISK 66.240

When a tug transports a pilot and assists the vessel, the charge for the transfer of the pilot is cancelled.

If the sailing time for the tugboat Sleipnir is more than 1 hour to or from the service area, a charge of ISK 105.600 per hour is collected.

The corresponding charge for tugboat Mjöllnir is ISK 73.680 per hour and the corresponding charge for tugboat, Seifur is ISK 124.600 per hour.

Reception of vessels Art. 14

Mooring dues per person for each arrival/departure is ISK 18.890 based on the standard day rate. When overtime rates apply, the charge is ISK 35.670

When a vessel is moored to a pier, at least one port employee must be onsite to receive it, although an exemption may be made from this rule in special cases.

Passenger fees Art. 15

A passenger fee is to be paid for each passenger of a tourist vessel and cruise ship. The fee is ISK 253. The Master, agent or owner of a passenger's vessel must deliver information on the number of passengers to the port authorities for the collection of the fee.

Pollution Art. 16

Polluters must pay all cleaning costs due to polluting accidents, according to laws against the pollution of the ocean and coasts. This can include the services of the Akureyri fire brigade, the services of the Port of Akureyri workers and charges for use of the equipment and necessary chemicals for cleaning.

Maritime security Art. 17

Upon the arrival of vessels subject to the provisions of the Maritime Security Act No. 50/2004, the following dues are to be paid:

ISK 65.875	Security dues (per arrival)
ISK 320	Passenger security fee per passenger
ISK 9.621	Security guard, standard day rate (per hour)
ISK 15.204	Security guard, overtime rate (per hour)
ISK 0	Cargo security dues

When the unloading of fish or cleaning of boats at the facilities in Sandgerðisbót has been finished, the boat must be moved immediately to the place the owner has procured for it. Failure to do so will result in a fine of 1,000 ISK. for each begun day at the pier.

Storage charge and site rent Art. 18

A storage fee for containers/goods left on the quay for more than 48 hrs prior to loading or after unloading is ISK 1.555 per unit, for each day begun.

10% discount on art. 19 except electricity for people older than 67 and for people with disabilities.

Waste management and disposal charges Art. 21

According to the Act on Marine and Coastal Antipollution Measures No. 33/2004 and Regulation No. 1200/2014, the Master of a vessel is responsible for ensuring that waste from the vessel is delivered to the port or a recognized service provider before leaving the port. The Master, owner of the vessel or service provider must, without fail, prior to the vessel's arrival in port, submit a completed form to the port stating the volume and type of waste brought on land. Failure to do so can lead to the vessel being reported to the Environment Agency of Iceland. A vessel requesting that Port of Akureyri accept delivery of waste must send a notification to such effect with at least 48 hours' notice prior to arrival in port.

All vessels to which the provisions of Article 11c of Act No. 33/2004 on Marine and Coastal Antipollution Measures apply shall pay as follows for waste disposal:

- 1) Waste dues: On the vessel's arrival at the port, the vessel shall pay ISK 0.45 per GT. These fees shall cover the port's supervision and administration of the receipt of waste. The minimum fee according to this item is ISK 7.073 and the maximum dues are ISK 40.748.
- 2) Waste dues: The fee pursuant to item a may decrease if the environmental management, design, equipment, and operation of the vessel is such that the Master can provide evidence that less waste is generated on board. In such a case, the fixed fee is ISK 0.23 per GT. The minimum dues according to this item is ISK 7.073 and the maximum dues are ISK 40.748.
- 3) Waste dues: Ships and boats that arrive more than four times during the calendar year pay according to section b for their fifth arrival and for arrivals thereafter during the year.
- 4) Waste dues: Ships and boats that are less than 100 m in length, are not subject to pilotage and have a home port in the port of Akureyri shall pay a fixed monthly fee for the port's surveillance and administration as regards the receipt of waste. The monthly dues are ISK 7.073 per month.
- 5) Disposal dues: On arrival at the port, all vessels subject to Article 11 of Act No. 33/2004 are to pay a disposal fee irrespective of whether they unload waste on land. The disposal fee is to cover the cost of disposal of waste that is unloaded on land.
 - a. Passenger vessels longer than 60 meters shall pay ISK 1,59 per GT. The fee is based on the following waste volume:
 - b. Passenger vessel less than 30.000 GT: 5m³
 - c. Passenger vessel from 30,000 to 100,000 GT: 10M³
 - d. Passenger vessels more than 100,000 GT: 15m³
 - e. Other vessels pay ISK 2,30 per GT. The fee is based on 5m³ of waste.
- 6) According to item h, payment must be affected for the waste that exceeds the above criteria. Ships and boats that are less than 60 m in length and have a home port in the port of Akureyri are subject to a special agreement which takes account of, among other things, laws, and regulations on the delivery of waste.
- 7) The minimum fee according to this item is ISK 43.558.

- 8) Disposal dues: If a vessel seeks the services of a recognized entity for the disposal of waste, the vessel may receive a refund of the imposed disposal fee according to item e, provided that a receipt from the receiving entity together with correct information on the volume disposed of is submitted. The condition for the refund of costs is that the receipt of the receiving entity is submitted to Port of Akureyri within 48 hours of the vessel's departure.
- 9) According to Article 11 of Act No. 1200/2014, the Environment Agency of Iceland can grant vessels on scheduled routes, which regularly dock in the ports and provide evidence of delivery of waste and payment of fees in each port on the route in question, an exemption from the delivery of waste. A Master or owner of a vessel who has been granted an exception from the Environment Agency of Iceland as regards the disposal of waste or submission of notifications must present a valid confirmation to such effect.
- 10) Vessels that are exempt from payment obligations pursuant to item 1 of the second paragraph of Article 17 and Article 11© of the Harbor Act, must pay for the harbor's acceptance and disposal of general waste. The port's minimum fee for the receipt of waste is ISK 13,522 per cubic meter, and the minimum fee to be paid is for one cubic meter. If the port is responsible for the receipt of hazardous waste or special waste involving greater cost than that of general waste, the party must pay any resulting cost.

Maintenance fees Art. 22

Maintenance fees for the small boats are ISK 382 per month.

Collection and payment of charges Art. 23

If charges are not paid by the due date, the port reserves the right to add late payment interest to the arrears according to article 6 of Law 38/2001 on interests and indexation.

The captain, owner, or possessor of the ship shall be responsible for payment of charges owed to the Port of Akureyri on account of the ship. Upon arrival in port, the captain is obliged to provide the Port Director with information about the ship in accordance with par. 5, art. 33 of ordinance 326/2004 on port matters, and submit the ship's certificate of the registry if requested by the Port Director, in case of insufficient information from the captain. Port authorities may place a lien on such certificates until charges are paid. Delays and damages resulting from such procedures are entirely the responsibility of the debtor of overdue debts.

Payment of overdue debts must be completed before the ship's departure from port, and a captain cannot expect service from the district magistrate or directorate of customs unless he/she can provide a certificate from Port Director that he/she has paid all due debts to the port.

Wharfage dues are paid for all goods that are offloaded, delivered, or transported, one way or another, inside port boundaries. Wharfage dues are determined before the ship's departure unless otherwise agreed. Wharfage dues are the responsibility of the carrier and delivery without payment of wharfage dues is their responsibility.

If goods are loaded from one ship to another, the wharfage dues are payable by the offloading party.

Wharfage dues from goods arriving in port become due when the ship carrying said goods has arrived in port, and wharfage dues from goods transported from the port are due when the goods have been loaded onto the ship. Delivery of goods by captain and ship's salesman is prohibited until dues have been paid.

All charges herein are shown excluding VAT.

Akureyri, December 13th, 2023

Pétur Ólafsson, Port Director

Inga Dís Sigurðardóttir Chairman of the Board of Port of Akureyri
